

Sponsored by Hong Kong Arts Development Council, IPAT Asia Chapter managed a “Porcelain Art For Youth” project for secondary school students to learn porcelain painting. Through practical work, students learn principles and elements of arts and how to appreciate porcelain artworks. Our goal is that this unique art form, originated from China some 1800 years ago, will be kept alive in Chinese territories for generations to come.

Students completed three projects in eight weeks.

