

IPAT Asia Chapter Newsletter 2/2013

It is time to renew IPAT Membership. Send your Membership fee with form to ipattx@flash.net before 2014

18 IPAT Asia Chapter teachers and students participated in the month-long display of porcelain artworks in Discovery Bay. This sharing of our members' creativity with the community proves to be a meaningful experience. Take a closer look to some of the displays.

Amy Cheung

Monique Leung

Janet Yim

Justin Fung

Education

We have a very busy quarter. We have sharings with Mina Kwok who returned from USA for her school's reunion in Hong Kong. We did scrolling on 12" cake plates with stands and a plate on grapes.

Member artist : Choi, Yeo-Jin of South Korea

Choi, Yeo-Jin majored in Fine Art in the College and Graduate School of University. She particularly likes porcelain painting and explores European style with European artists like Andreas Knobl, Melanie Foster, and Peter Faust. She has completed the Master Course in Hwang Kyung Hee Porcelain Academy and enjoys teaching porcelain painting there as Workshop Instructor. During the past years she participated in exhibitions actively whether as solo or group. Following are some of her artworks.

