

IPAT Asia Chapter Newsletter 2/2015

To pursue the objectives of IPAT Asia Chapter, members have done much in exchanging thoughts and ideas with artists having similar interests, promoting porcelain art, and raising our level of quality in porcelain painting. Here are some of our sharing events.

Diddy Yeung's sharing on air brush technique

Etsuko Hanajima's sharing

Chinese Porcelain Art Workshops Projects completed this year

Porcelain Painting Studio at Caritas Institute of Higher Education, Hong Kong

Porcelain Painting Studio at National Chiayi University, Taiwan

To celebrate the 96th anniversary of National Chiayi University, the China Painting Studio specially invited porcelain master Andreas Knobl to share his profound knowledge on china painting to its students in the Lantan campus.

Announcement

Executive Committee 2015-2016

President: Dr Corinna Siu
1st Vice President: Vicky Yeo
2nd Vice President: Hwang Kyung Hee
Treasurer: Joyce Lee
Recording Secretary: Monique Leung
Historian: Lily Huang

Pls visit our Facebook and Website www.asporcelainpainting.com for updates

Artist : Turo Kuki of Japan

Turo Kuki is a frequent traveler and has painted with many teachers in different countries. He likes to paint Buddhism icons.

